The Library partners with parents to help children Grow Up Reading™

Parents are a child's first teachers. Help your child develop essential early literacy skills and build a strong foundation for future reading success with these six powerful practices.

Grow Up Reading™ Tips for April: Reading

- Read favorite stories again and again. Seek out books about things your toddler especially likes — trains, animals, the moon. These books may extend a toddler's attention span and build enthusiasm for reading.
- Let your child interact with the book during reading time. Babies cannot yet turn pages on their own, but an 18-month-old will want to give it a try, and a 3-year-old can certainly do it alone.
- Talking, listening to and telling stories, and hearing new vocabulary words are really the keys to early literacy. A child needs to build these important skills before she is ready to recognize letters and words. And she works on them every day by telling stories, hearing her parents and teachers introduce new words and complex language, and listening to them read aloud from books and other materials. These daily interactions help her make the connection between words on a page and spoken language.

Book Suggestions for April:

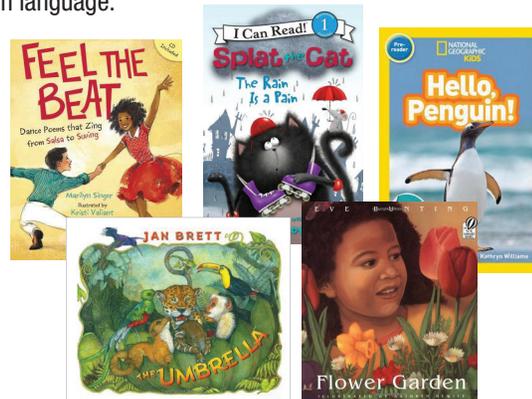

Feel the Beat: Dance Poems That Zing from Salsa to Swing by Marilyn Singer

The Rain is a Pain by Amy Hsu Lin

The Umbrella by Jan Brett

Flower Garden by Eve Bunting

Hello, Penguin! by Kathryn Williams

Old MacDonald Had a Farm

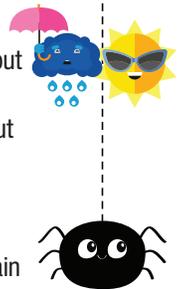

Old MACDONALD had a farm
E-I-E-I-O
And on his farm he had a cow
E-I-E-I-O

With a moo moo here
And a moo moo there
Here a moo, there a moo
Everywhere a moo moo
Old MacDonald had a farm
E-I-E-I-O

*Add more animals to the farm along with
The noises each of those animals make.*

The Itsy Bitsy Spider

The itsy-bitsy spider
Climbed up the water spout
Down came the rain
And washed the spider out
Out came the sun
And dried up all the rain
And the itsy-bitsy spider
Climbed up the spout again
